

FREE Training for Healthy Montana Schools

HealthySEAT
Healthy School Environments Assessment Tool

One-day FREE training program!
Learn about how to customize and use
U.S. EPA's HealthySEAT
FREE software in your school district to keep your schools safe and healthy.

Thursday • November 2, 2006
9 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Location:

Helena, Montana and through VisionNet and METNET Links
1300 11th Avenue • Second Floor • Helena, MT
Pre-registration is required (see below)

Presenter:

Bob Axelrad
Indoor Environments Division, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

What is HealthySEAT?

HealthySEAT is a fully customizable software to help districts track the status of all of their environmental, health, and safety issues school-by-school. Additionally, HealthySEAT includes information and links on a broad array of environmental and safety issues.

Who Should Attend?

District level school health, safety, environmental and facility staff; school administrators and business officials; state, tribal and local education, health, and environmental quality staff.

Space is limited, so please register early (including remote link attendance):

Bonnie Rouse - Montana Department of Environmental Quality
Phone 1-800-433-8773 or E-Mail: brouse@mt.gov

Sponsors:

Montana Department of Environmental Quality • Business & Community Assistance Program
Montana Office of Public Instruction • Health Enhancement & Safety Division
U.S. EPA Region 8 • Children's Environmental Health Team

Persons with disabilities who need reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this meeting should contact DEQ at 1-800-433-8773.

